VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Thanksgiving Thursday. Fall in line.

This court week will keep some people busy.

Everything ready for the city election today, Tuesday?

Mail early. Think of the overworked people at the postoffice.

Shop early. Think of the overworked clerks and merchants.

Methodist preachers and lay delegates leave today, Tuesday, to attend conference at Rock Hill.

Nice bunches of Newberry people saw Ben Hur in Columbia Wednesday and Thursday.

Will say that this weather is good if there is no danger of changing before going to press.

There is no trouble to sell some things in Newberry. Look at those Texas horses last week.

Take in the talking pictures tonight, Monday, at the opera house—Manager H. B. Wells' place.

The Herald and News doesn't print everything it knows, not by a great many lines. It wouldn't do.

Brig. Gen. Funston wants a Japanese newspaper to apologize for saying that American soldiers consulted the women in Honolulu. All the same we bet they did.

We fully agree with the Lancaster News that a good roads day for South Carolina might help to arouse our people to their need of better highways.—McBee Courier.

Al Rikard's minstrels are on their tour. The Herald and News has made these minstrels famous. If you want to be known and amount to something, get in with The Herald and News, the paper that does things.

Our most vivid recollections of "Ben-Hur" are a five dollar seat, several tableaux, a chariot race that was over before we could realize it had started, and a rush for the exits.—Fairfield News. Was that the experience of E. D. Pearce, W. A. Wherry or any of the Newberry ones?

That was a fine present he gave her. The "he" and the "her" are known to a few besides the principals in the case. These little things will leak out, somebody will "let the cat out of the bag." Oh, well, Christmas is coming and it is time for presents. Examine the advertising columns of The Herald and News, the paper of the piano contest.

At the meeting at Clemson college last Friday a special order was a memorial service in honor of Col. R. W. Simpson and W. D. Evans, who had died during the year. The correspondent to the State says that "eloquent addresses were made" and "especially touching" were the strong and tender tributes of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wamaker, who knew and valued the services of their departed friends so well.

You poor unfortunates who have no cause for thankfulness Thursday as has our young friend, Mr. Thos. Pay-singer Wicker, will no doubt find something for which to be thankful if they hunt for it. People get what they look for in this world. If you hunt for trouble you won't get pleasure. Old man Nature is a good storekeeper, he keeps everything in stock always. All you have to do is to ask for what you want if you don't see it.

Thanksgiving in "ole Virginia" will be helped by Newberry Thursday. It is a time for singers and other musicians and everybody to be harmonious and happy. But they must pay for the music, who put the "pay" in "Paysinger?" One of the Tom Wickers has something to do with it. On with "the old Virginia reel," and shake hands with Pollyanna, we haven't heard from the little girl in some time now.

"Everybody" is "carried away" with Robinson's electric sign. "They say" it is beautiful. Then there is the electric sign at the opera house corner, brilliant idea of Manager Wells put into execution. Newberry is getting to be some city with its bright electric signs. The opera house sign ought to attract and draw a crowd to the talking pictures tonight Monday. The pictures themselves should draw the crowds, they are the original Edison pictures, and are worth seeing.

Santa Claus' Postoffice.

Santa Claus will again this year make Robinson's Ten Cent store his headquarters, and he has established what he calls Santa Claus' postoffice there. Little girls and boys may now write him telling him what is most desired and write their names on back of envelope, bring to The Ten Cent store and mail in Santa Claus' postoffice. No stamps are needed, as he has made arrangement with Mr. Robinson to deliver his mail free of charge.

Santa Claus has finished his work on all toys and they have already arrived at The Ten Cent store. Next Monday they will be placed on the counters and shelves of this big store and the little girls and boys can go and take mama and papa to see the many pretty things Santa Claus is going to give his children this year.

Don't forget to write him a letter this week and mail it in his postoffice at Robinson's Ten Cent store.—Adv.

COUNTY TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

To Be Held December 4-6—A Fine Program—All Teachers Expected to Attend.

The county teachers' institute will be held in the high school building in Newberry on December 4-6. The county board of education hopes that every teacher in the county will arrange to attend the institute, beginning on the evening of December 4th. It is understood that all teachers, who attend, will be given pay for Friday, the same as if they taught school. An interesting program has been arranged for this meeting, which will be printed in Friday's issue of The Herald and News.

The Municipal Election.

The Democratic primary election which will be held on Tuesday, November 25—which will be today, Tuesday—now claims attention. According to announcements in The Herald and News the situation is as follows. For mayor, Mr. Z. F. Wright has no opposition.

In Ward 1, Alderman P. F. Baxter is opposed by Mr. J. Chesley Dominick.

In Ward 2, Mr. J. R. Green is a candidate for election as alderman. Also H. H. Abrams.

In Ward 3, Alderman C. T. Summer is unopposed.

In Ward 5, Mr. W. H. Hardeman is unopposed for alderman.

In Ward 4, Alderman E. L. Rodelsperger is opposed by Mr. C. M. West.

Mr. L. G. Eskridge, from Ward 4, and J. Y. Jones, from Ward 5, are announced as candidates for school trustees.

Hot Supper at Smyrna.

The ladies of Smyrna church will have a hot supper Thanksgiving day at Mr. Vernon Wilson's. Services at the church at 3 o'clock, when a collection will be taken for the orphanage, and then the hot supper will be from 4 till 10. All are cordially invited to attend.

Vernon Wilson.

Sundry School Convention.

The following is the program for the Sunday school workers at the First Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, November 30, at 3 o'clock.

The Sunday School as an Evangelizing Force—Rev. E. D. Kerr.

The Relation of the Pastor to the Sunday School—Rev. E. Fulenwider.

The Relation of the Church to the Sunday School—Rev. A. M. Gardner.

How to Keep Them There—Rev. E. Pendleton Jones.

Music by members of the different church choirs.

Davidson-Aull.

"They tell me Jim Aull is married." That was the interesting and bright bit of news flashed from one to another up and down the street Monday morning, just after the event had first become known. The sparkling information thrilled the hearts of the friends of the two parties to the contract, and the nerves groups of interested people tingled with delight as they heard of this latest important affair in the history of the city, for Mr. James L. Aull and Miss Anita Davidson, two very popular young people, had just come from the college, where on Monday morning at 10 o'clock they were united in marriage by the Rev. J. Henry Harms, president of Newberry college, at his residence on the campus.

It was another of those quiet little affairs without elaborate surroundings. Amid the congratulations and well wishes of their friends the happy couple left on the 11:38 Southern train for Columbia, their home.

The bride is the attractive and winsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Davidson, and the groom is a son of Col. E. H. Aull, all of Newberry city. One of the highest forms of compliments these days to say of a man is that he is all right. In the full acceptance of the term "Jas. L. Aull is all right." May he and his bride have many years of happiness and prosperity in the days that are to come.

Reedy River Association.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Missionary union of the Reedy River association will be held on Friday, November 28th, with the Saluda church at Chappells.

It is hoped that the societies will send not only delegates with their reports, but as many of their members as can attend.

The following is the program.

Devotional exercise—Mrs. Asbill.

Greetings—Mrs. A. P. Coleman.

Response—Mrs. T. H. Garrett.

Enrollment of delegates.

The importance of each society sending delegates to each quarterly and State meeting and of contributing to all causes fostered by our W. M. U.

by Mrs. W. H. Hunt, superintendent.

Tidings from each society by the delegates.

Mission Study—Mrs. Joel Rice.

Why Can't You Win One of These Offers?

Misses Louise and Vida Counts and Mrs. Geo. Senn Won

Special Prizes Last Week. E. M. Lane & Co.,

Gilder & Weeks and J. T. Mayes

& Co. Give Prizes this Week

Miss Louise Counts had first choice of the prizes for last week, preferring the photos, given by O. & T. E. Salter, photographers. Miss Vida Counts, second, chose the ladies dress skirt, valued at $5.00 given by Copeland Bros. The third prize, a gold and bronze clock given by Robinson's 5 and 10 cent store, was won by Mrs. Geo. Senn. Miss Louise Counts made a close run for third place.

This contest is still young—in its infancy in fact—but now is your important time to get a thorough campaign planned. Do this early and get ahead of any possible rival. The prize will go to those turning in the largest number of votes. No favors will be shown any one in the race. In this way every contestant has an equal chance to win.

It is to your interest to get out and hustle for subscriptions, job work, or advertising. See your friends—those you can see, and write to those you can not see, and urge them to help "boost up" your standing.

Three Special Offers.

First—"Job work or printing." For every thirty-five dollars in orders for job work or advertising to be done in the future, and not to count for work already done or contract advertisers, turned in, we will give 100,000 extra
